the first individual (you - Margaret) is No. 1. The father's number is twice that number (2 for Albert Wesley; 4 for Arthur Blaine, etc.). The corresponding spouse's number is 2 x the one (3 for Margaret Louise Russell; 5 for Fannie Derchmer, etc.).

Lea and I have made considerable progress though we are each encountering various road blocks. We will keep looking whenever we get new leads. She is equally involved in her family records as am I.

We had letters from the several Rochester & al Winter families for the Holidays. We were concerned to learn that Raymond had been quite ill. I wrote to him some time ago but have had no reply. Have recently written to Nelson. Perhaps he can give us further words.

We had very pleasant visits with our families over the Holidays. Visited son David in Los Angeles meeting his intended bride Sandy Rader, college secretary. They plan an April wedding in L.A. We plan to be there. Christmas found us with my sister Margaret Nelson, in San Diego her husband Bernard and their two young families. David and Sandy joined us in San Diego.

Flew to Houston for New Years and visits with son, Bob, his family as well as daughter, Mary, and her families. While with Mary, I had a very nice telephone visit with Nelson & Goelet's
